Games Today
Bridgeport at Northampton. New Haven at Springfield. Hartford at New Britain. Holyoke at Waterbury.

In Northampton to-day.
McCarthy's turn to pitch. A victory ought to be good for a starter.

Will some one kindly stop our sudden descent.

Five defeats, all by big scores, with one victory, was the local record for the past week. Hartford was just the opposite.

Will the locals try out any more pitchers? It seems too bad to see a good team go to pieces, when all that is needed are a few steady pitchers. Artie Homer has yet to show the fans that he is still good for another season. Pollard and Gibbs have been good, barring the slughters of the past week. McCarthy has pitched in but one game, and did well. Groom is worthy of a further trial, but not against the leaders of the league, against whom he was tried out.

Last week was a bad one for the Orator catchers. Koocher was forced to retire in two of the games because of injuries. Jameson taking his place. To cap the climax Jameson had the thumb and forefinger on the right hand broken in Saturday's game, which will put him out of playing for some time. If Koocher still hangs onto his luck of the week, don't be surprised to see Manager O'Rourke get into the fray.

"Hands Up" or "Who Tapped George Cameron's wallet." Manager Cameron of the Ravens was so overjoyed to have his team trim the Orators, that he did not pay any attention to two strangers on a Newfield avenue trolley who jostled him, and who George believes relieved him of $150. They will have to play two weeks in New Haven, before that amount is made up.

Tommy Downey, short stop of the Cincinnati team, was in town yesterday, having been granted a leave of absence until to-day. Tommy was an interesting spectator at the West End

Park here yesterday is certain. Evidence was collected at the game yesterday by Rev. Dr. A. G. Lawson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and several men who are behind him in the movement for a rigid enforcement of the law. There was no excitement and few knew of their presence. Last night the same persons made visits to the moving picture shows and collected the necessary evidence to proceed against them, and it is understood that the warrants will be served to-morrow.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

(By Dick Barrett.)

St. Charles won from St. Joseph, Jr.s, yesterday at Wheeler's lot, 6 to 5. This game placed the victors as the undisputed leaders of the Park City League.

Over-confidence lost a game and the leadership in the Park City League yesterday for the West End Boys' Club, the Aurora winning out 5-4.

The Amazons would like to play the Park Robins next Sunday afternoon at any grounds. Answer through this paper.

The Bridgeport, Jr.s, defeated the Amazons yesterday afternoon, 14 to 6, in a red hot game.

Some class to the Yannigans beating the Brookside Specials 11 to 6, yesterday morning at the East End freight yards.

The Modocs defeated the Newsboys team yesterday afternoon at the U. M. C. lot 16 to 5.

The Thistle, Jr.s, defeated the Norman A. C. yesterday at the Circus grounds to the tune of 12 to 9.

A new catcher will place the St. Joseph, Jr.s, in the running for the pennant in the Park City League.

The Lakeviews must be sore on Joe Wells because he is a little bit older than McAniff and they are trying to bar him from the Park City League. Joe made that league easy and his right age is 19 years last November. For any more information see the manager of the Brookside.

The Lakeviews are a very hard team to get along with and they want to look out if they want to stay in the league.

The All-Stars were a little too strong for the South Ends yesterday, winning 15-4.

In a 14 inning game at West End Park, yesterday, the "Jackies" from the U. S. S. Nebraska defeated the West Ends 3-2. McCrary of the victors struck out 22 of the West End batters.

MUTINEERS

EXECUTED IN CONSTANTINOPLE

Constantinople, May 17.—The execution of those concerned in the recent mutiny was resumed in Constantinople to-day, two Armenian officers and their gendarmes being executed in Parliament Square near the spot where the uprising broke out. The executions were witnessed by a large crowd and the publicity given the event was generally condemned.

NEWFIELDS LOST TO ALL-WATERBURYS

Close Game Witnessed by 1,500 Spectators at the Meadows.

The Newfields opened their season yesterday at the Meadows with the All-Waterburys as the attraction, and were defeated 6-5. Over 1,500 spectators were well pleased with the game which was marked by clever playing. The two Barrys for Waterbury played well. Miller's pitching for the Newfields was effective, as was Wallace's of Waterbury. The score:

ORATORS BADLY

BEATEN IN FINAL

GAME OF WEEK

Call out the Reserves. Uncle Jeems wants pitchers and wants them bad. It seems that's the way he has been getting them all season. Pitcher Gibbs, the only Orator who had not received a drubbing so far during the season, was found to the liking of the Ravens on Saturday at Newfield, the final score being 12-5. Fourteen hits, most of which were bunched, and five of which were for two or more bases, completed the agony. Reisligh, the Western boy wonder, teased the Orator batters at will, nine hits, enough to win an ordinary game, was allowed, three of which went to Hilt and two to Ladd. The Orators bunched hits in the first and seventh innings, when they netted their quartette of runs. Havel of the Ravens had two three baggers and a single, while Sherwood and Ambos each had trio of safeties. The score:

Property of the defendant on Lindley street was attached by City Sheriff Hamilton.

Kings' Daughters

Conference Tomorrow

Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock the county conference of the King's Daughters will open at Trinity Methodist church, when prayer will be offered by Rev. Charles E. Barto, pastor of the Washington Park M. E. church. The morning will be taken up with the reading of circular reports of the work of the county. Lunch will be served at 1 o'clock, after which there will be an original poem read by Miss Fannie Crosby. The afternoon session will be opened by an address by Mrs. I. W. Sneath of New Haven, on the "Call to Service." Following Mrs. Sneath, Mrs. Gladden Boers of this city, will entertain with solos. Rev. A. R. Davies, pastor of Trinity M. E. church, will speak on "Filling the Gap." The public are invited to attend the services.

Warner Bros. 4, Bridgeport Brass 2.
No. 1 Crane 17, A. & B. 11.

Games Next Saturday.
U. M. C. Co. vs. A. & B. Co.
Yost vs. Bridgeport Brass.
Singer Co. vs. No. 1 Crane.
Warner Bros. vs. No. 2 Crane.

At Yost field, the Champions and near-champions fought desperately for nine innings, the latter winning 7-1. Jack Coffey, the U. M. C. pitcher, had no errors for the Typewriter makers, eleven hits being made off his delivery, which with the same number of errors handed the game to the Yosts. The latter excelled in the field, the work of both Dube and Reganary being excellent. The score: U. M. C. 0, 0 0 1 0 0 1 1-7-11-3
U. M. C. Co. 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0-1-7-11
Batteries: White and Wilson; Coffey and Gaffel.

The Singers walloped the elants of "Red" Coughlin hard Saturday, winning easily 14-2. They did not start to pile up the runs until the fifth inning, but after that there was no stopping of the East Siders. The fielding of the Crane team helped swell the score. The score: Singer, 0 0 0 2 2 5 14-14-13-6
Crane No. 2, 0 0 1 1 0 0 0 0-2-7-10
Batteries: Nichols and Laubscher; Flynn, Coughlin and Stirn.

George Ellsworth's band of Fence Wreckers cavorted about at Seaside Park on Saturday, piling up seventeen runs to the American & British Co.'s eleven. Every man on the Crane Co. team hit for a single or better, "Dutch" Richards and Casparack each getting a trio. The score: U. M. C. 1, 1 0 2 4 3 17-17-18-12
A. & B. Co., 2 0 0 0 2 0 2 2-11-10-6
Batteries: McCarthy and Mosher; Jaekel, Soks and Brannigan.

With Higgins and White as a battery, the Warner Brothers team, the infant of the league, defeated the Brass Co. at Newfield Park in a close and interesting game by the score of 4-2. Higgins allowed only six hits, three of which were corraled by Buckley, the fielding of the Brass center fielder. The score: Warner, 0 0 0 0 0 2 0-4-4-5
Brass Co., 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0-3-6-5
Batteries: Higgins and White; Robinson, Egan and Franz.

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE NOTES

Last year's champs found it hard sailing.

Wow! wow! A total of 55 errors for the day's work.

Singers are to be looked out for. With Nichols, the former Orator pitcher, their prospects are exceedingly bright.

Those odds for batting averages are making the boys hush, as 75 hits were made in all the games.

The defeat of the Brassies was the surprise of the day. It was not thought that the Warner Brothers had much of a team outside of the battery. The dope was handled wrongly, however.

Dube's homer in the Yost-Cartridge game was the only hit of the day that was good for the crowd. Young Dube is improving with every game, being a valuable addition to any team.

George Ellsworth ought to be ashamed of his team to allow the American & British to pile up ten runs on them. No doubt the riot act will be read during the week.

It was the work of the Crane No. 2 infield that started the throwing away of the Singer game. Coughlin became discouraged and let the Sewing Machine boys pound him at will.

Things looked dangerous in the sixth inning of the Yost-Cartridge shop game, when three hits in succession by the fulminate mixers placed men on all the bases with none out. Gaffel, the next man up, went back to the bench after three unsuccessful swings. Thompson drove one at "Husky" Reganary, who was laying in as was the rest of the Yost infield. The drive came on a line near the ground, but stuck in "Husky's" glove. Reg ran to third, completing one of the prettiest double plays, unassisted, imaginable.

Jaekel, the former Bullard pitcher, is still with us, serving 'em up for the American & British team. Wonder will he still have the number of the Yost team?

Muldoon, catching for the Lincolns, is playing right field and chance catcher for the Ordnance team. The youngster is a comer.

Looks as if Wiggie Halpin will capture one of those cups for batting honors. There is seldom a game that the hard hitting Singer player does not connect for three or more safeties.

American & British team looks good on paper. Manager Coles has gathered a good bunch of material, not favorites, but players that play ball. They intend to hand the small end to the Cartridge shop team this Saturday.

The assignment of grounds for next Saturday will appear in tomorrow evening's Farmer. Watch for it.

Cartridge shop has four good pitchers in Coffey, Dart, Moran and Ennis. With this quartette some good work ought to be accomplished.

The Yost team, with that freeze out of last season still uppermost in their minds, do not intend to have occurrences of the past crop up again, and will try to win every game. To further this end "Husky" Reganary secured the services of Amos Johnson, the star pitcher of the West End team, who is at present working in the factory.
